Information for Chairs and Speakers

Chairs of invited and contributed sessions will strictly enforce the total time allotted to each speaker: 30 minutes (approximately 20 minutes for the talk and 10 minutes for Q&A). Chairs will also follow the order of presentations listed in the program. Transition time between talks should happen during the Q&A for the previous talk. To allow for attendees switching among parallel sessions, talks must not begin before their scheduled time, even if the previous talk ended early. No introductions are necessary beyond the speaker's name and talk title.

A/V equipment will be provided for all sessions with support for both VGA and HDMI laptop connections. Mac users should bring appropriate adapters.

Information about Posters

Poster presenters: install your poster as early as you'd like the day of your session. We'll provide display boards, tripod easels, and pushpins. The display area for each poster is 72" wide 48" tall. At least one author should always tend the poster during the session and be available to explain the work and answer questions. Use the display with the # corresponding to your listing in the program.

All posters are eligible to receive the Poster Prize. Please vote for the best poster by filling out an online survey. Instructions on how to do this will be emailed to you at the address you used to register for the conference.

Unfortunately, several of the most fun Ann Arbor restaurants do not take reservations, so you'll have to be prepared to wait for a table. Some allow you to call ahead and put yourself on a waiting list.

The One You All Will Have Heard Of

$$ - Zingerman's Delicatessen (and Coffeehouse), 422 Detroit St (a little over 1/2 mile from campus). One of Ann Arbor's most popular tourist destinations, Zingerman's has great sandwiches, salads, great breads, pastries, and delicious imported cheese and meats. The Reuben sandwich is a favorite of President Obama's. Ideal for take-out; although there is some indoor seating, it's not exactly a peaceful dinner atmosphere.
